ORDER:

The Government of India has taken a decision to bifurcate the present existing State of Andhra Pradesh by creating a new state of Telangana comprising of (10) Districts and the residuary State of Andhra Pradesh comprising (13) districts from Seemandhra Region, by passing the A.P.State Reorganisation Act, 2013 in the Parliament of India with the consent of the President of India. The appointed day for the two states to come into being is fixed as 2nd June, 2014. Therefore the administrative machinery of two states shall start functioning from the said date. In these circumstances, there is a need for earmarking two separate Government Buildings to the respective Chief Secretaries of both states i.e new state of Telangana and residuary state of Andhra Pradesh for official residential accommodation.

2. Government, after careful examination hereby allot Minister Building No.2, Kundanbagh, Hyderabad to the Chief Secretary to Government of Telangana State as his official residential accommodation in lieu of his present Quarter No.4, Kundanbagh, Hyderabad

3. The Executive Engineer (R&B), Central Buildings Division, Hyderabad shall hand over the possession of the Minister Building No.2, Kundanbagh, Hyderabad to the Private Secretary to Chief Secretary to Government of Telangana State under intimation to this Department and also to the Estate officer, Hyderabad for placing the said Building at the disposal of the said authorities.
